EDUCATION:

- Ph.D. (May, 1989) School of Communication, Information and Library Studies. Rutgers. The State University of New Jersey.
Dissertation title: The Influence of Context on Classificatory Behavior.
Dissertation advisor: James D. Anderson.
- M.L.S. (June, 1981) School of Library and Information Studies. Queens College. City University of New York.
- NY State Teaching Certificate in Secondary English (January, 1973) State University College. New Paltz, NY.
- M.A. English Literature (May, 1972). State University of New York at Binghamton.
- B.A. English Literature (June, 1969). Queens College. City University of New York.

PROFESSIONAL EMPLOYMENT:

School of Information Studies. Syracuse University.

- Professor. 2003-present.
Associate Professor. 1993-2003.
Director, Ph.D. Program. 1994-1998, 1999-2001.
Director, MLS Program. 1990-93.
Assistant Professor. 1987-93.

School of Communication, Information, and Library Studies. Rutgers. The State University of N.J.

- Teaching and Research Assistant. 1985-87. Department of Library and Information Studies.
Assistant to Prof. Nicholas J. Belkin.
- Adjunct. 1985-87. Professional Development Program. Teaching duties: "Nonprint Cataloging" and "Cataloging for Small Libraries."
- Research Assistant. Summer, 1985. Department of Journalism and Mass Media. Content analysis coding for a study entitled: "Environmental Risk Reporting in New Jersey Newspapers" (Peter M. Sandman, et al., Principal Investigators). Coordinated. invitational conference; prepared reports.
- Teaching Assistant. 1983-85. Department of Journalism and Mass Media. Teaching duties: "News Reporting and Editing" and "Gathering and Evaluating Information."

Dutchess Community College. Poughkeepsie, NY

- Head of Technical Services. 1980-83. Maintenance of public catalog. Reference. Bibliographic instruction.

Freelance.

- Indexer and Copyeditor. 1978-87. Various publishers, including Holt, Rinehart & Winston.

COURSES TAUGHT:

Ph.D. Seminars:

- IST830: Special Topics: Elicitation Techniques for Information Science
- IST820: Seminar in Research Methods: Approaches to Research in Information Science
- IST820: Seminar in Research Methods: Elicitation and Analytical Techniques for Information Science
- IST810: Practicum in Research

Masters:

- IST501: Research Techniques for Information Management
- IST511: Introduction to the Library and Information Science Professions
- IST561/616: Information Systems: Theory and Design
- IST604: Organization of Information
- IST631: Theory of Classification and Subject Representation
- IST638: Indexing and Abstracting
- IST704: Online Public Access Catalogs
- IST971/972: Internship and Cooperative Education in Information Studies

MLS Independent Study Degree Program

- ISDP561/616: Information Systems: Theory and Design
- ISDP631: Theory of Classification and Subject Representation
- ISDP638: Indexing and Abstracting

Undergraduate:

- IST155: Introduction to the Information Management and Technology Profession
- IST101: Freshman Forum
- IST302: Development and Organization of Information Resources
- IST355: Introduction to Information Science
- IST444: Information Presentation
- IST471/472: Internship and Cooperative Education in Information Studies
- IST476: Integrated Information Systems Projects (DIPA, London)
- News Reporting and Editing (Rutgers University)
- Gathering and Evaluating Information (Rutgers University)

Continuing Education (Rutgers University):

- Cataloging for Small Libraries
- Nonprint Cataloging

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS:

A framework for creating a faceted classification for genres: Addressing issues of multidimensionality. Thirty-Seventh Hawai'i International Conference on System Science (HICSS-37). Big Island, Hawai'i, 5-9 January, 2004.

Genre, taxonomy, and paradigm: The use of classification in the arts and sciences. ASIST 66th Annual Meeting, Long Beach, CA., October 22, 2003.

Commercial websites and the use of classification schemes: The case of amazon.com. Seventh International ISKO Conference 10-13 July, Granada, Spain, 2002.

Classification structures in the changing environment of active commercial websites: The case of eBay.com. Sixth International ISKO Conference. 10-13 July, 2000. Toronto, Canada.

New trends in academic library research. Presented at the New Jersey Library Association Annual Spring Conference, May 1, 1997, Long Branch, NJ.

Classification as an information research technology. Presented as part of a panel: "Classification and Technology: New Roles for Maps of Knowledge." October 10, 1995. ASIS Annual Meeting, Chicago, IL.

Classification and theory in chemistry. Presented at the Symposium on Ordering, Classification, and Display of Concepts in Chemistry, Division of Chemical Information, American Chemical Society Annual Meeting, Washington, DC, August 21, 1994.

- The role of classification structures in reflecting and building theory. Presented at the 3rd ASIS SIG/CR Classification Research Workshop, October 25, 1992, at the 55th ASIS Annual Meeting, October 25-29, 1992, Pittsburgh, PA.
- A descriptive study of the functional components of browsing. Presented at the IFIP TC2/WG2.7 Working Conference on Engineering for Human-Computer Interaction, Ellivuori, Finland, August 10-14, 1992.
- The exploration by means of repertory grids of semantic differences among names for office documents. Presented at Classification Research for Knowledge Representation and Organization, the 5th International Study Conference on Classification Research, June 24-28, 1991, Toronto, Canada.
- The use of repertory grid analysis for thesaurus update and maintenance. Presented at Multimedia Information Systems, the American Society for Information Science 1991 Mid-Year Meeting, April 26-29, 1991, Santa Clara, CA.
- A design study for the investigation of browsing behaviors. Presented at the Canadian Association for Information Science Annual Conference, May 26, 1990, Kingston, Ontario.
- The influence of context on classificatory behavior. Presented at the Research Awards Program, at the Annual Conference of the Association for Library and Information Science Education, January 4, 1990, Chicago, IL.
- The influence of context on classificatory behavior. Presented at the Doctoral Forum. 52nd Annual Meeting of the American Society for Information Science, October 30-November 2, 1989, Washington, DC.
- Describing the dynamic nature of classificatory decisions for documents in an office. Presented at the 52nd Annual Meeting of the American Society for Information Science, October 30-November 2, 1989, Washington, DC.
- How a personal document's intended use or purpose affects its classification in an office. Presented at the ACM-SIGIR 12th Annual International Conference on Research and Development in Information Retrieval. June 26-28, 1989, Cambridge, MA.
- The specification of term relationships in a thesaurus for the purpose of browsing, concept expansion and query clarification. Presented at: The User Interface: 1989 American Society for Information Science Mid-Year Meeting, May 21-24, 1989, San Diego, CA.
- Factors affecting the naming of documents in an office. Presented at the 51st American Society for Information Science Annual Meeting. October 23-27, 1988, Atlanta, GA.
- Information literacy: Concepts of literacy in an information age. Presented at: Information Literacies for the 21st Century, the First Interdisciplinary Conference on Information Literacy, October 14, 1988, Queens College, Flushing, NY.
- A user-oriented method for investigation of information classification behaviors. Presented (by Thomas Froelich) at the FID Conference. August 28-September 1, 1988, Helsinki, Finland.
- A method of studying classificatory behavior. Presented at the Fifth International Conference on Empirical Foundations of Information and Software Science (EFISS), November 23-25, 1987, Riso National Laboratory, Roskilde, Denmark.

Using structural representations of anomalous states of knowledge for choosing document retrieval strategies. Presented (by Nicholas Belkin) at the 1986-ACM/SIGIR Conference on Research and Development in Information Retrieval. September 8-10, 1986, Pisa, Italy.

WORKSHOPS, PANELS, and INVITED LECTURES:

Co-Founder, Co-Organizer and Co-Chair: American Society for Information Science SIG/CR

Workshops on Classification Research held at the ASIS Annual Meetings.

13th, held November 18th, 2002, Philadelphia, PA

11th, held November 12, 2000, Chicago, IL

8th, held November 1, 1997, Washington, DC.

7th, held October, 1996, Baltimore, MD.

6th, held October 8, 1995, Chicago, IL.

5th, held October 16, 1994, Alexandria, VA.

4th, held October 24, 1993, Columbus, OH.

3rd, held October 25, 1992, Pittsburgh, PA.

2nd, held October 27, 1991, Washington, DC.

1st, held November 4, 1990, Toronto, Canada.

Workshops:

“Library Science: Transferring our knowledge to new environments.” March 21, 2003. Rochester Regional Library Council, Rochester, NY.

“Browsing strategies for indexing”. May 11, 2000. Annual Conference of the American Society of Indexers. Albuquerque, NM.

“Elicitation techniques for research” February 15-16, 1996, Royal School of Librarianship, Copenhagen, Denmark.

“Qualitative research methods” March 13-14, Royal School of Librarianship, Copenhagen, Denmark.

“How to write a literature review.” February 21-22, 1996. Royal School of Librarianship, Aalborg, Denmark.

“Vocabulary control for information work.” Week-long minicourse sponsored by the Royal School of Librarianship in Copenhagen and the European TEMPUS Project: March 16-22, 1996, Vilnius University, Vilnius, Lithuania.

Town Meeting for Strategic Planning for the Central New York Library Resources Council, March, 1994.

“Library of Congress Subject Headings: Trends and issues.” Workshop conducted at Rutgers University, New Brunswick, NJ, September 22, 1989, for the Rutgers University School of Communication, Information and Library Studies Professional Development Program entitled: “Cataloging/Classification: Update 1989”.

“Nonprint cataloging.” Workshop conducted May, 1988, for the Sullivan County BOCES, Liberty, NY.

Lecture Tour:

“The social impact of classification” By invitation of the Finnish-American Fulbright Commission:

May 6-7, 1996. School of Information Science. University of Oulu, Oulu, Finland.

May 8-9, 1996. School of Library and Information Studies, Tampere University, Tampere, Finland.
May 9, 1996. School of Library and Information Science. Abbo University, Abbo (Turku), Finland.

Invited Lectures:

- “Classification across Cultural Boundaries.” School of Computing, Napier University, Edinburgh, Scotland, April 25, 2003.
- “Classification and theory.” February 13 and March 1, 1996. Royal School of Librarianship, Copenhagen Denmark.
- “Classification and theory.” Department of Computer Science. University of Glasgow, Glasgow, Scotland, April 16, 1992.
- “Using discourse analysis to study natural classifications.” University of Toledo Electrical Engineering Department Seminar Series, March 8, 1990, Toledo, OH.
- “Methods of studying cognitive processes.” Bellcore, January 23, 1990, Navesink, NJ.
- “Classification theory.” November, 1987, Royal School of Librarianship, Copenhagen, Denmark.

Panelist:

- “Elicitation techniques for classification research: Part II: Repertory grids.” Panel presentation at the 5th ASIS SIG/CR Classification Research Workshop, October 16, 1994 at the 57th ASIS Annual Meeting, Alexandria, VA.
- “HCI: Whose problem is it anyway?” IFIP TC2/WG2.7 Working Conference on Engineering for Human-Computer Interaction, Ellivuori, Finland, August 10-14, 1992.
- “Information literacy.” Syracuse University Writing Program Spring Conference, Session on undergraduate research, May 23, 1990.

Moderator:

- “Thesauri as knowledge-bases for information retrieval.” SIG/CR and SIG/HCI session, November 8, 1990, at the 53rd ASIS Annual Meeting, Toronto, Canada.

Participant (by invitation) and Presenter:

- Workshop on “Context: Its Use in the Human-Computer Interface,” held March 31-April 2, 1990 at the Association for Computing Machinery SIG-CHI Annual Conference on Human Factors in Computing Systems, Seattle, WA.
- “The student view: From the dungeon.” Doctoral Student Session entitled: “The Timetable for Research in the Doctoral Program: Three Views,” at the Annual ALISE Conference, January 3, 1990, Chicago, IL.

Participant (by invitation):

- Workshop on Complex Systems, Ethnomethodology and Interaction Analysis. American Association for Artificial Intelligence Conference, July 30, 1990, Cambridge, MA.
- Workshop on Knowledge Acquisition, held during the 11th International Joint Conference on Artificial Intelligence (IJCAI), August 22, 1989, Detroit, MI.

4th Annual Workshop on Conceptual Structures, held during the 11th Annual Joint Conference on Artificial Intelligence (IJCAI), August 20-21, 1989, Detroit, MI.

First International Lexical Acquisition Workshop, held during the 11th International Joint Conference on Artificial Intelligence (IJCAI), August 21, 1989, Detroit, MI.

Faculty Mentor: ASIS Doctoral Student Research Seminar, held at the 57th ASIS Annual Meeting, October 24-28, 1994, Alexandria, VA.

GRANTS:

Fulbright Visiting Scholar Grant. January-June, 1996. Royal School of Librarianship, Copenhagen, Denmark. $23,000.

Research in Information Transfer. Three Title IIB Doctoral Fellowships. From: U.S. Department of Education, submitted, November, 1994-97. $120,000.

Youth Services and Information Networking Technologies - One Title IIB Library Career Training Program Fellowship. From: U.S. Department of Education, June, 1993-August, 1994. $10,800.

Cataloging in an Automated Environment - Eight Title IIB Library Career Training Program Fellowships. From: U.S. Department of Education, August 1991-August 1993. $86,400.

A Descriptive Study of the Functional Components of Browsing. From: OCLC Library and Information Science Research Grant Program, June, 1991, 6 months. $10,000.

Automatic Knowledge Extraction from Dictionary Text (with Sung Myaeng and Elizabeth Liddy). CASE Center R&D Grant (G-31), May/June, 1989. $12,726.

HONORS AND AWARDS:

ASIST Outstanding Information Science Teacher Award, 2002.

.Jeffrey Katzer Professor of the Year 2000. School of Information Studies. Syracuse University.

Alumna of the Year, 1999. Queens College Graduate School of Library and Information Studies. City University of New York.

Fulbright Visiting Scholar Grant (Spring, 1996). Royal School of Librarianship, Copenhagen, Denmark.

ASIS Best SIG Publication of the Year, 1995, 1994, 1993, 1992, and 1991, for the annual Proceedings of the ASIS SIG/CR Classification Research Workshop.

ASIS SIG-of-the-Year Award, 1992, as Cabinet Representative and Workshop Co-Chair of the Special Interest Group on Classification Research.

ASIS SIG-of-the-Year Award, 1990, as Chair Elect and Workshop Co-Chair of the Special Interest Group on Classification Research.

Association for Library and Information Science Education (ALISE) Doctoral Dissertation Award, 1990.

ASIS Doctoral Dissertation Award (Doctoral Forum), 1989.

Rutgers University Graduate School Scholarship for Dissertation Work, 1986-87.

Rutgers University Graduate School and SCILS Travel Award, 1986.

Rutgers University Graduate School Graduate Assistantships, 1983-1987.

Laurie Fischer Memorial Award for top honors in graduating class, Queens College SLIS, 1981.

H.W. Wilson Company Scholarship for Library Studies, 1979-80.

Finalist-Library of Congress Internship Program, 1980 (awards cancelled for that year).

New York State Regents Fellowship for Graduate Studies, 1969-71.

New York State Regents Scholarship, 1965-69.
