Grants Received

Summary

Total Research Funding as Principal Investigator/Project Director (PI/PD): $416,914
Total Research Funding as Co-Principal Investigator (Co-PI): $4,471,504
Total Research Funding as Investigator: $10,200,00
Grand Total: $15,088,418

Principal Investigator/Project Director—W.K. Kellogg Foundation (Grant No. P0058119), "Addressing the Challenges to Africa of Globalization and the Information Society with Theoretical and Applied Methods," $75,000, 1998-1999.

Principal Investigator/Project Director – “Collaboratory on Technology Enhanced Learning Communities (Cotelco) and the Global Graduate Seminar on Globalization and the Information Society”, W.K. Kellogg Foundation/Alliance for Community Technology, 1999 ($10,000), 2000 ($10,000), 2001 ($40,000).

Principal Investigator/Project Director—UNESCO, "Analyzing Distributed Collaborative Learning Approaches for Africa," $5,000, 1999-2000.

Principal Investigator/Project Director—“Cotelco and the Global Graduate Seminar: Understanding Globally-Distributed Collaborative Learning Through the Use of Complex, Cross-National Virtual Teams,” Microsoft Research, partially funded, $5,000, .5 months, 2001.

Investigator—National Science Foundation (Grant No. 0114368): “IGERT: Socio-Technical Infrastructure for Electronic Transactions, (with Mackie-Mason, Wellman, Gordon, Resnick, et al.), Awarded, $2.7 M, 5-years, 2001.

Investigator—National Science Foundation (Grant No. 0085951): “ITR/SOC + IM: Sustainable and Generalizable Technologies to Support Collaboration in Science” (with Olson, Olson, Finholt, Teasley, Atkins, Hedstrom, Radev, Yakel), National Science Foundation, 2.4 US$M, 5-years, 2001.

Co-Principal Investigator– “Building the Information Society in Africa: Cultural Preservation and Networking in Emerging Democracies,” (with Hedstrom), USIA/US Department of State, $70,000, May 2001.

Principal Investigator/Project Director—“Support for the Global Graduate Seminar 2003,” equipment grant, Cisco Systems, $1,500, 2002.

Principal Investigator/Project Director – “From Pawns to Partners: Involving University of Michigan Students in the Development of an ICT Policy Collaboratory at the World Summit on the Information Society,” University of Michigan, International Institute, Advanced Studies Center, $10,000, 2003.

Principal Investigator/Project Director—“Going Global, Locally: Understanding the Socio-Technical Factors Supporting Distributed Collaborative Learning between Developed and Developing Countries,” Microsoft Corporation, Community Affairs, $50,000, 2 years, 2003.

Principal Investigator/Project Director – “From Pawns to Partners: Policy Collaboratories and Their Impact on the Global Governance of Cyberinfrastructure,” Hewlett Packard Equipment Grant, $5, 547, 2003-04.

Principal Investigator/Project Director – “Leadership in the Digital Age: South African Quad Leadership in Information Infrastructure Development,” University of Maryland, Center for International Development and Conflict Management/Markle Foundation, $1,500, 2004.

Co-Principle Investigator (with Peter Blank) – “Demand-Side Employment Placement Models” NIDRR National Institute for Disability and Rehabilitation Research (NIDRR). $2.5 Million, 5-years.

Co-Principle Investigator (with Margaret Hermann and Hans Peter Schmitz) – “Transnational Non-Governmental Organizations as Agents of Change: Towards Understanding Their Governance, Leadership and Effectiveness,” NSF, Human and Social Dynamics, Grant Number SES-0527679, February, 2005, $499,999 2005-07.

Principal Investigator - “Building and Evaluating a Pilot Collaboratory for the Southeast ADA Technology Assistance (SEADATA) Center.” Seed grant, Georgia Tech, June 2006, $15,000, 6 months.

Principal Investigator/Project Director – “Enhancing the Cyberinfrastructure for National AGEP Integration: Rapid Prototyping and Evaluation of a Pilot NY AGEP Collaboratory,” NSF Grant No. HRD-060347, $188,367, 2-years.

Co-Principal Investigator (with Horace Smith, Can Isik, and Patricia Stith) - “Syracuse University Ronald McNair Post-Baccalaureate Achievement Program.” Department of Education, $1,157,150, 5-years.

Co-Principal Investigator (with Stanton, et al) – CI-Facilitators: Information Architects Across the STEM Disciplines. NSF, $244,355.

Grants Under Review

Co-Principle Investigator (with Tice et al) – Advancing Women Graduate Students in Science and Engineering: A Virtual Collaboratory (WISE-VC) for Persistence and Professional Preparation. Department of Education. $479,631.

Co-Principal Investigator (with Garcia-Murillo, et al) –REU Site: REU Technologies for Information Science Research (TISR). NSF, $327,655.

Co-Principal Investigator (with Lee-Glauser, et al) – “AGEP: Program Element 1515 Central NY, Caribbean,” Hopkins AGEP Alliance. NSF, $5,000,000.

Grants Submitted (Not Awarded)

Investigator—National Science Foundation STC (Science and Technology Centers): A Center for Collaboratories in Science and Research, 2001.

Principal Investigator/Project Director—National Science Foundation ITR/PE+IM (CISE) Understanding Globally-Distributed Collaborative Learning Through Complex Cross-National Virtual Teams, 2001.

Principal Investigator/Project Director—Center for Research on Teaching and Learning, “Expanding the Global Graduate Seminar Complex Cross-National Virtual Teams, $10,000, 2002.

Principal Investigator/Project Director—National Science Foundation NSF: CAREER: “From Pawns to Partners: Policy Collaboratories and their Impact on the Governance of Global Cyberinfrastructure, $490,482.00 (5 years), 2003.

Principal Investigator/Project Director – “From Pawns to Partners: Exploring the Impact of Policy Collaboratories on Transnational Advocacy Networks and Multistakeholder participation in the Global Governance of Cyberinfrastructure,” National Science Foundation, 3-years, $188,040, 2004.

Investigator (w/ Crowston et al) – “Virtual Collaboration IGERT” – National Science Foundation, Integrated Graduate Education and Training (IGERT) competition, January 2005.

Co-Principal Investigator (w/ Blanck, Friedman et al) – “Promoting the International Exchange of Information and Expertise in Disability and Rehabilitation Research” – Department of Education, National Institute on Disability and Rehabilitation Research, June, 2005.$500,000, 3-years, 2005.

Investigator (w/ Glauser, Castillo et al) – “Applications of Multi-Scale Fluid Dynamics in Homeland Security” – National Science Foundation, Integrated Graduate Education and Training (IGERT) competition, $2.4 Million, 5-years, 2005.

Co-Principle Investigator (with Liddy and Hermann) – “YDOT: Your Data Our Tools: An Organizational Testbed for Facilitating NLP Analysis of Large-Scale Digital Data Through Cyberinfrastructure-Enabled Social Science Research Teams” NSF, Next Generation Cybertools competition, June 2005.

Co-Principle Investigator (with Murillo-Garcia) – “Pathways to Progress: Advancing Talent Through Research Activities in Computing Technology” NSF, Broadening Participation in Computing competition, June 2005.

Co-Principle Investigator (with Small, Fiese, Eccles, and Gay) – “The CaSE for Learning Center: Curiosity and Sustained Engagement in Learning,” NSF, Science of Learning Center competition, June 2005.

Co-Principle Investigator (with Crowston, Liddy, Heckman) – “Group Maintenance Behaviors for Cyber-Infrastructure-Support Distributed Groups,” $300,000, 2-years. National Science Foundation, 2006

Principle Investigator (with Crowston, Hermann, Davidson, and Blanck) – “IGERT: Cyberinfrastructure for Virtual Collaboration (CiViC): Understanding the Socio-Technical Infrastructure to Support Geographically Distributed Groups, NSF, IGERT Competition, March 2006, $2.5 Million, 5-years, 2006.

Principle Investigator – Supporting the Syracuse Community Entrepreneurship Initiative (SCEI) Through a Geographically Distributed Teaching and Learning Collaboratory. Pre-proposal submitted to the Sloan Foundation by the SU Vice Chancellor, 2006.

Principle Investigator – Collaborative Research (with Ross, et. al., Cornell) Support for an Earth System Science Informal Education Network (ESSIEN). NSF Proposal No. 0714684. Five years, overall budget $2.46 million; SU $220,000, 2006.

Co-Principal Investigator (with McKnight, et al) – Developing the Wireless Grid Engineering Virtual Organization (WiGEVO). Collaborative proposal with Tufts University. NSF, $130,428, 2007.
